3. On 10 May, the Encke Kaserne on Beimsstrasse was occupied to capacity. ***

25X1

* Comment. On 25 April 1952, [redacted] Kavallerie Schule in Kramnitz was still occupied by 500 troops who, because of the large size of the installation were believed to be guard details. [redacted] The train mentioned which presumably carried units of the 10th Gds Tank Div undoubtedly went to Letzling Heath and is the 25th of the trains of this division which went there during the period following 15 April 1952.

25X1

[redacted] The loading of 12 x 160-mm mortars the 209th Gds Mort Bnt had already been loaded on 20 April.

25X1

 Comment. A train of the 4th AT Arty Brig (US) which probably went to Jueterbog. The units of the brigade may have practiced in the area north of Neustrelitz where the 2d Light Arty Brig (US) also moved during the period from 26 to 28 April 1952.

 Comment. [redacted] the Hindenburg Kaserne was occupied to capacity by headquarters units of the Third Shock Army and the Flak Kaserne was believed partially occupied by units of the 3d Gds AAA Div. The information on the occupation of the other barracks installations corresponds with previous information. [redacted]
